

www.disabledworkers.org.uk

Disabled Workers Co-operative
130 Wells Road
Glastonbury
Somerset
BA6 7AQ
admin@disabledworkers.org.uk

The Disabled Workers Co-operative is a registered charity that helps disabled people to help themselves by raising the independence of disabled people by enabling them to take an active role in the economy and achieve a greater sense of self-worth and also to raise awareness of the contribution that disabled people make to society.

Local disabled workers fulfilling local needs

On-line database of the skills, services and products disabled people have to offer. Disabled entrepreneur's are able to register the skills, products or services they have to offer FREE on the Disabled Workers Database.

Use the Disabled Workers Database to find a disabled worker near you who is able to provide you with the service you are looking for Unemployment is highest amongst disabled people.

The Disabled Workers e-Jobs Portal gives employers the opportunity to actively encourage more disabled applicants by promoting their vacancies FREE directly to disabled jobseekers.

The e-Jobs Portal gives disabled Job Seekers a way of entering the job market by searching and apply for jobs on-line in the confidence that their applications will be taken seriously.

Sharing information

The Disabled Workers Co-operative website is a resource that can be used to find information and answer questions about disability and employment.

For more information about the Disabled Workers Co-operative please visit:

www.disabledworkers.org.uk

The Disabled Workers Co-operative receives no central or government funds and is dependent on donations to keep its projects going. If you have found our services useful please consider supporting the work we are doing by making a donation.